HADITHS

Abu Hurayrah reported that the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): “Whoever glorifies Allah (says Subhan Allah) thirty-three times immediately after each prayer, and praises Allah (says Al-hamdu Lillah) thirty-three times, and magnifies Allah (says Allahu akbar) thirty-three times; this makes ninety-nine. Then to complete one hundred says La ilaha ill-Allah wahdahu la sharika lahu, lahul-mulk wa lahul-hamd wa huwa ‘ala kulli shayin qadir (There is no god except Allah Alone, with no partner, His is the power and His is the praise, and He is Able to do all things); his sins will be forgiven even if they are like the foam of the sea.” (Reported by Muslim 597).

Dhikr After Every Prayer

Subhan Allah ✓ 33 times

Alhamdulillah ✓ 33 times

Allahu Akbar ✓ 33 times

La ilaha illallahu, wahdahu
la sharika lahu, lahul-mulku
wa lahul-hamdu, wa Huwa ✓ Once
'ala kulli shai'in Qadir

The Prophet ﷺ said:

His sins will be forgiven even if they are like the foam of the sea.

(Sahih Muslim 597)

NATIONWIDE ANTI-MOSQUE ACTIVITY

In recent years, anti-Muslim sentiment has spiked. Although these sentiments manifest themselves in many ways, attacks on mosques directly take aim at religious freedom. Existing and proposed mosque sites across the country have been targeted for vandalism and other criminal acts, and there have been efforts to block or deny necessary zoning permits for the construction and expansion of other facilities.

This newsletter contains a map highlighting anti-mosque incidents across the country since 2005. If you are aware of an anti-mosque incident not on this list, contact the ACLU.

While mosque opponents frequently claim their objections are based on practical considerations such as traffic, parking, and noise levels, those asserted concerns are often pretexts masking anti-Muslim sentiment. Government officials in some areas of the country have yielded to this religious bigotry, treating mosques and Islamic centers differently than other proposed houses of worship and/or denying zoning permits without the compelling interest that is required by the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000 (a federal civil rights law that affords heightened legal protection to the use of property for religious purposes). Even where local governments strongly support religious freedom, private citizens nevertheless often seek to intimidate Muslims into forgoing the exercise of this freedom. The Constitution guarantees the right of private citizens to protest, and the ACLU would vigorously

There is a hadith in Sahi Bukhari which can be the benchmark for all hadiths : Narrated by Aisha: “The Messenger of Allah said, ‘Why do some people impose some conditions which are not in Allah’s Book? Whoever imposes such a condition as is not in Allah’s laws, then that condition is not valid even he imposes one hundred conditions, for Allah’s conditions are more binding and reliable.’” (Sahi Bukhari, hadith # 2155) defend that right if infringed by the government.

But making Muslims – or any other religious group – feel unwelcome in local communities conflicts with our Founders' vision of religious liberty and tolerance. Protests that cross the line into violence and other criminal acts are, of course, not protected by law and are indefensible.
